March 2023

Dear Father / Parish Secretary

How quickly it seems to come around again – this time of year when I write a few lines to accompany the mail-out of the Lough Derg poster!

And again this year I am conscious of how we depend on you and your counterparts in parishes across the country to help us promote Lough Derg by displaying our poster. We greatly appreciate, too, how we can email you as the season comes along with a few lines that we hope might find a place in your parish newsletter or on your parish website.

To minimise the negative environmental impact of bulk printed material, we now depend on our www.loughderg.org website to carry further details of our programmes and pilgrimage opportunities.

We have just recently upgraded our online booking system but, for those who prefer to lift a phone, our staff are more than happy to assist with information and to help with bookings.

I assure you of my appreciation for any help you can give us to promote Lough Derg, both in its time-honoured pilgrimage tradition and in the newer spiritual programmes that we now offer. If you would consider coming to Lough Derg this year, please be in touch with Maureen who will be able to offer yourself a reduced rate, or with Nuala who looks after group bookings.

Beir beannacht, and be sure of a prayer from me.
