28th Sunday In Ordinary Time

IN NOVEMBER WE REMEMBER
They are not gone from us, but gone before us.
 November is a time for remembering and praying for our loved ones who have gone before us and whose loss we feel. It is a time when we are particularly conscious of those in our parishes who are grieving and also all those families who have lost loved ones in the past year.

Hospice Coffee Morning Many thanks to all who contributed so generously to this worthy cause held in Comerfords on 25th September. A special word of thanks to all the helpers, to those who baked and provided cakes and to Margery Godinho for her jam sales. Total collected €1,110. Well done to all. Rene Delighted to see our parish mentioned in Ireland's Own Magazine.

Here is an excerpt from CASSIDY SAYS: THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS

It is a profound activity, doing the stations. During Lent I'd make a round myself, following the last 24 hours of Jesus' life. I take note of the fourteen scenes when I visit any church, and see how well they are represented. The set in Mooncoin, Co Kilkenny have a very solid feel about them, and I've seen others which you might say are examples of modern art.
