B4OC (Broadband For Our Community)

is a locally based volunteer group who have designed and built Ireland's first community-owned, high speed broadband network. We have recently partnered with NBI to provide broadband nationally. If you will shortly be out of contract, or are installing a new broadband connection, why not consider B4OC as your supplier. Check out what's available at betterbroadbandforpiltown.com or ring Jim on 086 3291895 to find out which offer is best for you.
 * World-class broadband service with rapid installation.
 * No anticipated price increases and no long term contract.
 * Local point of contact should you require assistance.
 * All excess funds stay local and are reinvested in the community

Workshop to prepare for the visit of Bishop Coll, who is planning to reconfigure the pastoral area, will take place on Thursday 26th September @ 7pm in the Nagle Chapel.
